Colour in a Roman mosaic

This is a postcard from the museum collection. It shows a part of the Roman mosaic at Littlecote House, Hungerford. The centre of the mosaic features Orpheus, and surrounding him are Roman deities (goddesses) representing the four seasons; this is one of them.

Using felt tip pens or colouring pencils, colour in the mosaic.

These activities have been created as part of the Learning & Participation programme at West Berkshire Museum and Shaw House. For more information about our family events please visit http://www.westberkshireheritage.org/whats-on