

Colour in the grog-warmer

This is known as a grog-warmer – a type of weapon similar to a mace, with a metal ball attached to a staff by a chain. It was found in a chimney of an old property that was demolished at Speenhamland.

Using felt tip pens or colouring pencils, colour in.

