

Creative writing challenge: Hercules

Here's a picture of a Ancient Roman bronze figurine. The figurine is of the Roman hero Hercules, son of the head of the Roman gods, Jupiter, and a mortal. Hercules was famed for his strength and adventures, which included the 'Twelve Labours of Hercules'. The Labours were challenges and included slaying a Hydra and capturing a Cretan bull.

Write a short story about meeting Hercules. Ask him about the Roman gods and goddesses and his adventures, such as the 'Twelve Labours of Hercules', or perhaps embark on a new adventure with him. For ideas, you can research these subjects online or in books.
