Colour in a school cap

This is a school cap with its eye-catching tassel on the top is from St Bartholomew's School, Newbury. It was worn 1913-15 by K.C. Baines, which is written inside the cap, and who was a prefect.

Using felt tip pens or colouring pencils, colour in the school cap.

These activities have been created as part of the Learning & Participation programme at West Berkshire Museum and Shaw House. For more information about our family events please visit http://www.westberkshireheritage.org/whats-on