

Colour in two mollusc shells

These are two mollusc shells found in Victoria Park in Newbury, and possibly date to the Mesolithic or Middle Stone Age.

Using felt tip pens or pencils, colour in the two mollusc shells.

